UNK N V O

The University of Nebraska (the "University") is committed to supporting an inclusive campus by embracing opportunities to positively impact our faculty, staf, and students lives.

To further support our diversity ef orts, the University includes optional questions about chosen names and pronouns on admission applications. Also, the University allows for self-selection by all enrolled students of their chosen name, gender identity, and pronouns in the campus dashboard. Faculty and staf can also update this information using Firef y, the employee self-service portal located at https://frefy.nebraska.edu/irj/portal. Helping all students, faculty, and staf feel comfortable and succeed is very important to the University.
